

WITCHES FLYING OIL FLYING OINTMENT

This non-toxic version of a traditional favorite, Flying Oil, will enhance any meditation or ritual. With an organic bees wax base, this gentle, soothing salve will open your third eye and calm your senses. Simply rub a small amount between your eyebrows.

Ingredients include fresh mugwort, clary sage, Dittany of Crete, Hops, Blue Tansy, Cham-omile, Yarrow and other top quality herbs and essential oils. Do not consume. Please place a small amount on the skin to test for any sensitivity or allergic response.

°A little goes a long way and will last through many, many meditations.

Flying ointment, in a historical context, was basically a salve containing a blend of fat and psychotropic herbs, which allegedly gave witches the ability to fly. Some may think flying ointments only go back as far as the Middle Ages as the majority of written accounts and recipes are from that period. But if we look in mythology, ancient literature, and folktales, we find a rich source of lore that leads back to pre-Christian times.